GUIDELINES

In your proposal, a new technology, a new combination of existing technologies, a new use of an existing technology, or a proposed research line, should be proposed. Also, ideas about how to best exploit existing technologies are welcome.

The proposal should analyse the capabilities and limitations of unmanned platforms for defence applications, and should address also economic, political, regulatory, ethical and/or environmental aspects.

The platforms addressed in this challenge can be aerial, terrestrial, maritime, space-based or even conceived to operate in the cyberspace

As this is a one-page proposal, describe your ideas briefly.

Present the most pertinent points from your pitch text so that the reader has an overview of your ideas.

Make sure every word counts. Avoid repetition.

If relevant, insert figures.

Avoid abbreviations and acronyms. If needed, provide their meanings.

If references are required, add them at the end of the document.

Please, submit your proposal before midnight (CET) 14 January 2022 to:
